

David Wilkins to Join Associated Terminals

Associated Terminals is pleased to welcome David Wilkins to the company. David will be assisting Associated in general cargo sales and business development.

David brings over 39 years of industry related experience with the last 15 years serving as Executive Vice President of Coastal Cargo. He has also been instrumental in operations, business development and sales in other port locations throughout the United States, Brazil, Mexico, Colombia and Venezuela.

“I am excited that David will be joining us. He shares our focus on providing logistic solutions with the highest level of customer service. We have seen an increase in our general cargo business and believe this is the right time to increase our presence in this sector. With his experience and understanding of the global market, we believe David will be a dynamic addition to the team” stated Todd Fuller, President of Associated Terminals.

Associated Terminals is a cargo handling and logistical solutions company operating terminal facilities on the Lower Mississippi River. The company provides high quality, customized services, including agricultural commodity exports, in-plant services, midstream operations, and terminal port operations, for both the import and export of commodities.
